Suspect Tries To Ram Police Car, Is Caught After High-Speed Chase

A Cheboygan man was arrested for felonious assault with a motor vehicle, reckless driving, driving with a suspended license, and fleeing from an officer after he tried to ram a police car and led Grayling City Police on a chase at speeds exceeding 100 miles an hour.

Grayling City Police tried to stop Daniel Overbaugh, 21, for a traffic violation at 1:30 a.m. May 8, when he drove off leading police on a chase. With police pursuing along M-72 East, the suspect was clocked at more than 100 miles an hour. At one point, the suspect turned his vehicle around and came head on at the patrol car with bright lights on. Grayling City Police evaded the on-rushing car and the chase started again on M-72 East. The suspect was apprehended 10 miles east on M-72 with no injuries to police officers or the suspect. Two passengers in the vehicle were released after they cooperated with police.

Three Injured in Roll-Over

Cheryl Sherony, 37, from Marquette, and her two children, Tommy, 9, and Michael, 3, were seriously injured when their vehicle rolled over on I-75 south of County Road 612 in the south-bound lane on May 9 about 5 p.m. All three were treated at Mercy Hospital and transferred to Munson Medical Center. Michael Sherony was listed as critical.

16-Year-Old Charged With B & E, Assault, Drunk & Disorderly

A 16-year-old Grayling youth was charged with breaking and entering, assault, and drunk and disorderly May 9. At 1:10 a.m. the Grayling City Police received a call about a break-in. At 1:15 a.m. the city police picked up the 16-yearold on drunk and disorderly charges and his description matched that of the person who had been spotted at the break-in.

Radios Implanted in Six Trout, Fishermen Asked To Return Fish

Six brown trout were implanted with radio transmitters on May 5 along the South Branch of the AuSable between Chase Bridge and Smith Bridge as part of a two-year research project. The study, by the University of Michigan, the DNR, and the M.F.F., is to provide information about trout habits, habitat, preferred cover, feeding times, and other trout matters.

The trout planted with transmitters are 15 to 19 inches long and can be identified by an approximately one inch scar between the pelvic fin and anal vent on the left side of the

In the raceways Saturday will be approximately 21,000 rainbow trout, 1,000 brook trout, and a couple of "monster" brown trout.

The trout will range from two-inch rainbows to 27inch browns. This is the first year brook trout will be displayed at the hatchery.

The fish are leased from Flowing Wells near Kalkaska and Cedarbrook near Harrisville.

The hatchery will be open 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. seven days a week from Saturday to the middle of September. Admission to the hatchery is free.

The hatchery is operated by the Grayling Fish Hatchery Committee, a group of local volunteers. The county oversees the operation.

The fish hatchery receives money from donations from the community and the gate. Revenues also are made through the sale of fish food in $1 bags or from machines for 10 cents a handful.

New to the hatchery this year is an historical marker on the Grayling fish.

The hatchery drew 37,500 visitors in 1983, 38,711 in 1984, and 38,000 in 1985. Besides attracting tourists, the

National Guard Called On To Move 20-Ton Caboose

For anyone who groans at the thought of carrying in grocery sacks. Monday morning was a sight to behold.

Michigan National Guard, from Camp Gravling and M.A.T.E.S. moved a 40,000-pound caboose off the railroad tracks to the side of the railroad depot facing Norway Street.

Although a small crowd gathered Monday morning to watch the final move, work began last week. Guardsmen reviewed the site to plan the move, and then built and welded brackets on the caboose in order to lift it without damage.

Early Monday morning, the heavy-duty work began when two rough-terrain cranes lifted the caboose off its wheels and placed it on a flatbed truck along the tracks.

The caboose was held onto the wheels only by small pins which were removed. A forklift moved the wheels over to a single length of track placed on the east side of the depot.

single track with the caboose on its back.

again and placed it on the wheels again. Guardsmen replaced the pins and welded stops in front of the wheels to prevent the caboose from moving.

Ten National Guardsmen were involved in the heavy-duty move: Capt. Bobenmoyer, CW2 Lee, SSG Brandes, SGT Hamlin, CW2 Derenzy, SSG Papendick, SSG Myers, SGT Legg, SSG Dawson, and SSG Doe.

Then the flat-bed truck backed next to the

Grayling Starts Hall of Fame For Greatest Canoe Racers

Grayling, which already calls itself the Canoeing Capital of the World, will soon boast an International Canoe Racing

"It just seemed like the natural thing to have here," said Steve Southard, one of five members of a nominating committee for the new Hall of Fame. "We have the AuSable River Canoe Marathon here that is a showcase for some of the best paddlers in the world."

Don Feldhauser, a three-time winner of the AuSable marathon, is the chairman of the nominating committee. Terry Wright, representing the Chamber of Commerce, Robert Ruddy, representing the Historical Society, and Jack Alef, representing the community, are the other members of the nominating committee.

Five racers have been selected to the Hall of Fame already, but the nominating committee is keeping silent on who was chosen. The five racers have been notified, however, and news did leak out that Ralph Sawyer, the all-time career point winner in the AuSable marathon, is one of the initial five paddlers honored.

News about Sawyer leaked out because he is the subject of an article in the June issue of Canoe Magazine. The first sentence of the article was going to read, "If there was a Canoe Racing Hall of Fame, Ralph Sawyer would certainly

Before the article was published, Sawyer informed the magazine that Grayling was opening a Hall of Fame, and the article was changed slightly.

The Grayling International Canoe Racing Hall of Fame will be located in the former historical museum building, once it is moved next to the railroad depot.

The Hall of Fame will induct canoe racers from around the world, not just great paddlers from the AuSable marathon. Special emphasis will be placed on the AuSable racers though, said Southard.

Unlike other Halls of Fame, there will be no mandatory waiting period after a paddler retires. That's because of guys like Irvin "Buzz" Peterson, a four-time winner of the AuSable marathon from 1963-71. Last year, Buzz got the itch to race again and at 65 years old he set a new age record by "People don't retire from canoe racing like they do from other sports," said Southard. "Just because guys like Buzz or Jack Kolka want to continue racing, it shouldn't exclude them from consideration."

Southard said one of the prime considerations for entry into the Hall of Fame will be a long career in canoe racing.

The new Hall will feature individual displays on the paddlers plus equipment used in canoe racing. Anyone wishing to donate old equipment, programs, or other materials associated with past races can call Robert Ruddy, the historical museum director.

Funds will be needed to build a new foundation for the Hall of Fame at the railroad depot site. Anyone wishing to contribute can send contributions to the Grayling Chamber of Commerce earmarked for that purpose.

RR Depot To Open As Museum

All the exhibits may not be quite in place for its Grand Opening Saturday, May 17, but the Crawford County Historical Museum is still going to attract a lot of attention.

Located in the 1872 Grayling railroad depot, the museum has the potential to be a popular draw. There aren't too many other county museums around with as much room or as historical a setting as the Crawford County museum.

"We're aiming to be the best around," said Robert Ruddy, director of the Crawford County Historical Museum. "We've got a long ways to go, but we've accomplished a lot so

"What you are seeing right now is the end of quite a few years of work going back to when the county acquired the property," said Ruddy. "Randy Thompson and Rotary Club did an awful lot to help the building, the school kids restored a room, Camp Lehman crews helped. It's been a community thing. The Historical Society has done a lot of work. The Chamber of Commerce is performing the bookwork and doing the promotion. The city, county, road commission, and service clubs have pitched in. The list is too long to mention everyone."

When the county took over the building, the roof leaked, the ceiling was falling in the south end of the first floor, and parts of the floor buckled.

On Saturday, the completely restored first floor will display exhibits in a traditional setting.

We're tried to restore everything the way it was when the depot was operating," Ruddy said. "The molding, pipework - everything we could."

The entrance door to the museum is west facing the courthouse toward the north end of the depot. The museum will offer two public restrooms. The museum will open at 10-4 Monday - Saturday, 1-4 Sunday.

"The museum will have two goals," said Ruddy. "One, to preserve local heritage, and two, to attract people to come and look and come back another time."

The new addition to the historical site, the railroad caboose, might not be open to the public this Saturday. It was just moved to the depot site Monday.

"We have to have steps built for it. If we can get those built in time, we could clean the caboose up a little and open it to the public," said Ruddy.

The Historical Society plans on using summer Michigan Youth Corps workers to clean and paint the caboose.

The upstairs of the railroad depot also will not be open this Saturday, but Ruddy said there are plans to restore the rooms there. One room will be restored and will hold photographs and information about Crawford County residents who have served in United States wars. Other local clubs such as the Grayling Promotional Association have expressed desire to restore an upstairs room. A group of area doctors are interested in putting a display in one room and Fred Bear may display some of his collections in one of the rooms.

Another addition to the historical site will be the International Canoe Racers Hall of Fame. The old historical museum building, currently located in the city park, will be moved next to the depot and serve as the Hall of Fame. The Historical Society will also oversee the Hall of Fame. Together the railroad depot, county historical museum, caboose, and canoe racers Hall of Fame will offer quite an attraction to tourists and local residents.

Admission to the museum is $1.

Historical Society Can Duplicate Your Rare Photos

You don't have to give up precious photographs to have them displayed at the Crawford County Historical Museum. The Historical Society will have your photographs duplicated and return the originals to you. If you're afraid to even let the photographs out of your sight, the Historical Society will send a photographer to your house to copy the pictures. The Historical Society is also looking for all types of artifacts from the logging and railroad eras in Grayling. If you have any tools, household items, or other artifacts you would like preserved at the museum, the Historical Society will come and pick them up.

To arrange to drop off artifacts at the museum or to have them picked up, call museum director Robert Ruddy at 348-7333 or leave a message for him at the chamber of commerce office, 348-2921.

Adults Needed for Big Brother, Big Sister Program

By Jon Thompson

Although Crawford County has approximately 6000 adults — many of them single — there are seven children on a waiting list for a Big Brother or Big Sister.

Currently, there are seven Big Brothers and Big Sisters working with children in the county through the Youth Services program. Since the Big Brother and Big Sister program started here in 1975, about 200 adults have volunteered as Big Brothers and Big Sisters.

Mary Jo O'Halloran, in charge of the program for Youth Services, said being a Big Brother or Big Sister doesn't mean a difficult commitment of time or money.

All Youth Services asks is that the Big Brother or Sister make at least five contacts, by phone or visit, with the little brother or sister a month. "Ideally, a Big Brother or Big Sister provides an outlet for the child and gives the little brother or sister a male or female role model," said O'Halloran. "There's no cost involved," she said. "Although a Big Brother or Sister may want to take the child out for a treat or buy them something, there's no obligation."

Youth Services does ask Big Brothers and Sisters to plan the activities to take place from the family home to provide an outlet for the child.

"A Big Brother or Sister is just an older friend, a buddy for the child," said O'Halloran, "Many of the children are from single-parent homes and they need more time with an adult. This doesn't mean the parent is doing a bad job, the kids just need more of this. For example, a boy with a single parent mother may need more male companionship."

For Rick Mrazik, currently a Big Brother in Crawford County, the volunteer work brings lots of personal satisfaction. "It's a great outlook for me. I'm single and have no family living here. Being a father or brother role model is fulfilling and meets some of my own needs," said Mrazik. "It's kind of nice when there's someone looking forward to seeing you and you're one of the highlights of their week."

Mrazik said his experience as Big Brother has brought many rewards. Once he took one of his little brothers fishing at Lake Margrethe and the boy caught five or six nice bass. "He was so happy I couldn't get him to leave the lake."

"It's mutually beneficial," said Mrazik. "This is the first time some of these kids have ever been with an adult in a nonauthority role. A lot of the kids respond very positively."

Most of the children in the program are boys 11-12 years old, although the program covers children ages 7-17. O'Halloran said they have a tough time getting enough Big Brothers for the boys. Anyone interested in becoming a Big Brother can call 348-2841 ext. 262. All volunteers are screened by Youth Services.

Another thing the Big Brother-Sister program needs is more participation from area businesses. At the Grayling McDonald's, a Big Brother or Sister can show their program card and pay for their meal while receiving a free meal for the little brother or sister.

Other businesses, especially those with activities for children, who can participate in the one-pay, one-free program for the Big Brother and Big Sister program can call O'Halloran.

From Our

Corner...

Whitey Madsen

Bits and pieces and a few leftovers just in case you are interested...

We put an orange out Saturday, and Sunday morning we noticed our first male oriole at the picnic table...spring has sprung and now we have our favorite spring sport of watching the beautiful orioles after our favorite drink...for our new readers, that's orange pop...

For quite a while I didn't mention how I could just sit and watch the orioles because I figured people would laugh at a silly pastime...not no more...I found out there are quite a few that like to watch a bird go after an orange...

Just a bit...seems like Mother's Day or a little before brings the Orioles back...could be the thought of building their nests for their young...

R.J. is really among us...all winter I had figured the Hobokon kid had left beautiful northern Michigan and went back to hiz beloved asphalt jungle...that was before I noticed his picture with the group receiving the Grayling High School award a couple weeks ago...R.J. really surfaced last Friday evening in the back room of the Avalanche. and it seemed like old times when he was head haunchau of the Nickelodeon...even the Leprechaun was here...

Rest assured, there were no tricks conjured up...R.J. said he was so busy making money this past winter he hadn't had time to stop by...thanks $\mathbf{R}.\mathbf{J}.$ for the din din...

We forgot to mention while we were out in Las Vegas we went to a tame show...

Dane's drama class was putting on the "Fantasticks" and we attended one of the performances...the students did a very fine job...why we can be a critic, is that we watched it performed in Detroit by a professional group...

A few years back we accompanied Larry and Moe McNamara to Detroit where we attended a dinner-theater show at a hotel there, and Mary Liz had the lead role...

The one in Las Vegas brought back memories of the one in Detroit...

Another sign that the orioles are back is that our back yard is covered with dandelions and would you believe our bride was out picking her favorite flower for her medicinal purpose wine she makes, and the bees chased her in the house... I have noticed two containers with some dandelions, but they are wilting...golf somehow has taken over wine making...

This past Monday has to be some sort of a significant day...National Guardsmen from M.A.T.E.S. with their equipment placed the caboose on the Norway side of the depot to add to the attraction of the new Historical building that housed the old railroad station...

Attaining the caboose was through the efforts of Jack Alef, president of the Grayling State Bank...in our opinion, there could be no better place for Grayling's artifacts than in the railroad depot...there will be a bit of nostalgia on the outside, as well as in the inside...

The railroad played a major part in the success of Grayling surviving back in the late 1800's and early 1900's...with the lumber mills, Grayling was at one time a hub for the trains between Bay City and

Mackinaw City...there was a roundhouse here, whereby a train could come this far and the engine could turn around and go back with other railroad Bob Ruddy, the new curator of the museum said the other day the ground floor is finished and will be open soon...take a little bit of time and look over some of Grayling's past...

An idle thought...,we are beginning to get the feeling that the oldest horse in the glue factory must have not much time left...

With that, our goodnight to T.J., Stefany and Amber, and to all have a nice weekend...won't be long until Father's Day, and then the mothers will have to do the dishes...

MASS PROBLEMS

If the Mass is a valid religious rite, it poses a number of questions one must consider. Which Mass is the sacrifice of the body of Jesus Christ? The New Mass? The Latin Mass? The tridentine Mass? A Charismatic Mass? Or does it matter, just as long as it is called a Mass? This is a provocative question dealt with by conservative Roman Catholic theologian Rev. For decades, New Hampshire's early presidential primary has grabbed the political spotlight every four years. More recently, Iowa muscled in on the attention with early presidential caucuses.

"Why not Michigan?" Republican leaders asked. Early attention by presidential candidates should invigorate the party workers and strengthen the party structure, they reasoned. And in addition, hundreds of thousands of dollars would be spent in Michigan by presidential campaigns seeking early party favor.

It's worked that way in New Hampshire for so long, they figured, that the idea ought to be worthwhile in Michigan.

SO A SYSTEM was invented to start the process as early as possible, making Michigan Republican choices felt ahead of New Hampshire and Iowa. In a complicated process that followed, May 27, 1986 becomes an important date for the selection of a presidential nominee in 1988.

It goes something like this:

May 27 is the date for filing petitions to run for precinct delegates at the August 1986 primary elections.

Precinct delegates selected in August of 1986 will in turn run the county and district conventions in 1987 which will select delegates to the state Republican convention in January of 1988 which in turn will select delegates to the national nominating convention in the summer of 1988 which in turn will pick the Republican presidential Whew! It's a long way around, but that's about the way it works.

TO GET IN ON the ground floor of presidential nominee selection, then, the grassroots Republican must start as a precinct delegate and have his/her petitions filed by May 27, 1986 — almost 2½ years before the next presidential election.

The idea is that anyone who wants to run for president will encourage Republicans who favor his/her nomination to become precinct delegates and thus build an army of supporters for the actual nominating process over the next two years.

In many ways, the idea has worked. At least four would-be presidents are working the Michigan vineyards of political support, with varying degrees of success.

Vice President George Bush is in Michigan almost as much as he is in Washington these days, talking to the party faithful and encouraging a full slate of precinct delegates - hopefully favorable to his candidacy.

Rep. Jack Kemp is trodding much the same pathway, with many personal appearances and plenty of phone calls and personal contact by his staff and other supporters.

Sen. Bob Dole has been in Michigan quite often, too, and also is concentrating on direct mail contact of rank-and-file Republicans.

AN UNKNOWN but active quality is Pat Robertson, an eastern-based television evangelist, who would be the beneficiary of newly-activated political concern by an organization called Freedom Council.

The council's appeal - and Robertson's draw, too - are centered in the fundamentalist religious area, which is an emerging giant in politics in Michigan and elsewhere.

Other potential candiates — former Sen. Howard Baker, Gen. Alexander Haig, Sen. Paul Laxalt, Ambassador Jeane Kirkpatrick, activist Donald Rumsfeld, to name a few — have limited their Michigan activity mostly to toe-dipping in the political waters. But they all have their backers.

ONLY TIME will tell if this increased political activity will pay off in more precinct delegate candidates filing for office.

Even more significant will be whether these newly-encouraged precinct candidates will remain active Republican party workers: (a) if they are defeated in their quest for delegate status; or (b) once the 1988 presidential race is decided.

That's the real goal of the party thinkers who dreamed up the early campaign plan - and it will take a few years to see whether the idea has worked, or just caused a world of confusion and possible

Free blood pressure clinics are held the fourth Monday of every month at Mercy Hospital, but due to the Memorial Day holiday, the May clinic was moved ahead one week.

High blood pressure, or hypertension, is the leading cause of stroke in this country. If left uncontrolled, high blood pressure also can lead to heart attack, kidney failure, and death. But hypertensives who control their blood pressure can lead normal healthy lives. Treatment usually involves medication that must be taken daily in addition to lifestyle modifications for successful control.

Every person who controls high blood pressure has found good reasons for following their prescribed treatment. Here are some rewards you may expect as you work to lower your blood

* Less risk of stroke, heart failure, or kidney failure.

* A sense of well-being from knowing you are taking care of yourself.

* Reassurance for your loved ones that you are investing in a healthier future.

from Dow Chemical, Kellogg, Federal-Mogul and General Motors, along with other business associations, in testimony on HB's 4770 and 4771 Tuesday at a public hearing of the Senate Economic Development, Trade and Tourism Committee.

Lou Wilking, overseas group executive for General Motors, said his corporation has adopted a number of policies designed to aid black South Africans, including the Sullivan Principles. "GM believes the people who would be hurt most by disinvestment would be the very people most in need of help...the nonwhite people of South Africa," he said. "These bills also imply the state of Michigan considers its largest employer and other major employers to be unsuitable as investment for its public pension funds."

Charles Infante, manager of special projects for Dow Chemical said his corporation's philosophy for remaining in South Africa is both moral and pragmatic. "We believe that our presence is better than our absence. That presence allows us to shape and participate in those dynamic forces that will lead to the erosion and final elimination of apartheid," he said.

Ernest W. Anderson, vice-president for Federal-Mogul Corpoation, said the legislation has a false premise, adding, "It's hard to understand how using employeeowned pension funds to purchase stock, on the open market, in a company with South African operations either condones or encourages discrimination." Michigan Manufacturers Association President John G. Thodis, the divestiture commission member who submitted the Sullivan Principles option, said, "Michigan and American corporations are not working to make apartheid better. They are working to eliminate it," Thodis said.

Dale Robertson from the Greater Detroit Chamber of Commerce said, "U.S. Sullivan signatory companies have now spent an excess of $138 million in South Africa since 1977 to advance the cause of non-white education, health, housing, training and black entrepreneurship."

Appreciates Help

On behalf of the Grayling Little League Board of Directors, I would like to thank the volunteers from our community that gave their time Saturday, May 3, 1986 to work on the field. Much was accomplished and the people who showed, although few, did a remarkable amount of work.

One runs a risk when attempting to thank everybody, but particular appreciation has to go to A.J.D. and Weyerhaeuser for the fence supplies, Camp Grayling for the tools and equipment, and Jack Millikin Excavating for their heavy equipment and materials. Our businesses just keep rising to the occasion to keep youth activities going.

Also, a very special thank you goes out to Supervisor Duane Cory's Camp Lehman volunteers who worked two days tearing down the old fence and erecting the new. Without their efforts the dozen or so volunteers from Grayling would still be working. Those of us who were there certainly appreciated their help and I'm sure the 150 kids involved in little league will too.

Sincerely, James E. Tobin, President Grayling Little League

May is Better Hearing and Speech Month

About 22.6 million Americans, one out of every 10, suffer from some kind of speech, language or hearing disorder. In fact, communication disorders are this nation's most prevalent handicapping conditions, afflicting more people than heart disease, cerebral palsy, paralysis, epilepsy, blindness, multiple sclerosis, and muscular dystrophy combined.

Fortunately, however, help is available. Speechlanguage pathologists and audiologists are professionals trained to treat speech, language and hearing disorders. The earlier a problem is diagnosed and treatment begins, the better the chances for improvement, and for the afflicted person to be able to lead a normal, productive life. However, it is never too late to seek help. Mrs. Annie Glenn, wife of Senator John Glenn of Ohio, did not overcome stuttering with the help of speechlanguage therapy, until she was in her 50's. *May is Better Hearing and Speech Month. If you or someone you know has a speech, language or hearing problem, make this the time to seek the help of a qualfied professional. The results should be rewarding.

return it to Mercy Hospital's laboratory for free analysis. If a problem is detected, you will be contacted and asked to have a follow-up examination with your family physician.

Early detection is important. Three effective tests can detect colorectal cancer simply, safely and with little discomfort. Have regular checkups, and ask your doctor about the tests for colorectal cancer; the digital rectal exam, the proto exam, and the do-ityourself stool blood test.

The do-it-yourself test, done in the privacy of your own home, is available to detect hidden blood in the stool, a possible warning sign of colon cancer.

Herbal Corner

According to William J. Park of Park Seeds Cinerara Diamond, otherwise known as Dusty Miller, will repel rabbits and other animals when planted around prized flowers. Dusty Miller being silver white in color will no doubt accent bright colors as well.

From Carrots Love Tomatoes: "Foxglove not only stimulates our hearts but has a beneficial effect on plants growing near it, particularly on pine trees. This is quite a natural association, since foxglove likes to grow on the borders of forests and open places in the woods. A tea made of foxglove will keep cut flowers fresh."

Foxglove is still listed on the Federal Pharmaceutical list due to the digitalis that is derived from the plant. It is for this reason that laymen do not, under any circumstances, try to use this herb as a home remedy for heart problems.

In 1979 we were infested with grasshoppers, and at that time the Extension Office came out with a recipe for ridding grasshoppers. Since Mother Nature is supposed to run in seven-year cycles, we may be infested again this year. I kept the recipe to help rid these grasshoppers and it can be adapted to smaller portions if divided by five. Recipe: Bran, 25 lbs.; sawdust, 75 lbs.; 2 lbs. 50 percent sevin or diazinon; 5-7 gallons of water and 1/2 bottle (1 oz.) banana flavoring. Vanilla will also work. Mix the insecticide and flavoring with the water. Mix the bran and sawdust together. Mix the liquid with the sawdust and bran turning the material several times with a shovel to insure uniformity.

This recipe should be made now if you see any grasshoppers to rid these pests while they are young. Herbally yours,

National Police Week "A Part of America Died"

Somebody killed a policeman today and A part of America died

A piece of our country he swore to protect Will be buried with him at his side The suspect who shot him will stand up in court, With counsel demanding his rights While a young widowed mother must work for her kids, and spend many long, lonely nights The beat that he walked was a battlefield too Just as if he'd gone off to war Though the flag of our nation won't fly at half mast,

To his name they will add a gold star Yep, somebody killed a Policeman today. In your town or mine While we slept in comfort behind our locked doors.

A cop put his life on the line Now his ghost walks a beat on a dark city street, And he stands at each new rookie's side He answered the call, of himself gave his all And a part of America died.

THE MICHIGAN LOTTERY
RECEIVES MANY QUESTIONS ON LOTTERY CLUBS. THE
FOLLOWING SUMMARY PROVIDES MANY OF THE ANSWERS.

Q: What is a Lottery Club?

A: A Lottery Club is the only way more than one person can jointly file a claim for a Lottery prize.

Q: Must a Lottery Club be regis-

A: Absolutely. Unless a club is registered with the Internal Revenue Service, the Lottery can only accept a claim in the name and social security number of ONE person.

Q: How does a group register as a Lottery Club?

A: Simply obtain an SS-4 form, available from a local IRS office or by calling the IRS at 1-800-424-3676. Once that form is completed with the names, addresses and social security numbers of the club members, as well as the club name, it should be sent back to the IRS. The club is then assigned a Federal Employers Identification Number by the IRS.

Q: What is that number needed for?
A: Any club's winnings and tax liability will be registered using that number, just as an individual prize winner's social security number would be used.
Q: What happens when a club wins a Lottery prize?

A: It must file a claim with the Lottery using its identification number. In about three weeks, the club will receive a prize check, made payable to the club's name. Or if the club wins a Lotto or Super Lotto Jackpot prize, a club representative must come to Lansing to claim it.

Q: What if the prize is over $5,000?

A: The Lottery will send a form to be completed by the club showing how much each member received. Later, the club members each will receive a W2-G form showing their portion of the prize and federal withholding, if any. Each member must include this form with his or her federal tax return for the year in which the prize was paid.

Q: Is there a tax advantage to a Lot-

A: While there is no state or local income tax on Lottery winnings for Michigan residents, federal regulations require that Lottery withhold 20 percent on prizes in excess of $5,000. That tax liability is shared by a club's members rather than one person being responsible.

Because his Lottery Club question was first received and used, Arne W. Flones of Paris, Michigan will receive 50 "Michigan Payday" instant game tickets

If you have a Lottery question you'd like answered, send it to:

"Winners Circle," Michigan Lottery, P.O. Box 30077, Lansing, MI 48909.

Resource Review

By Bruce Patrick Conservation Officer

A problem we face every spring is the removal of young animals from their natural habitat. Many people just cannot help themselves when they see what they think is an abandoned baby. A serious situation arises when the animal involved is a deer. A fawn is cute, fun and defenseless and people feel they are doing a good thing when they rescue it from the wild.

What people don't realize is that 99% of the time the fawn's mother is probably watching them as they pick it up and carry it away. Practically any animal will leave its young for various lengths of time. Never far away, always watchful, the parent is there.

After the fawn is "saved", problems begin to develop. What to feed it? Where to keep it? How long to keep it? A wild animal raised in close captivity does not have an opportunity to fine tune survival skills needed in the wild and has a reduced chance of survival when released.

Some animals become dangerous as they become older. A young girl from the Thumb area was nearly killed several years ago by an antlered buck which had been raised by a neighboring farmer. The 1½ year old buck attacked the girl for no apparent reason, severely lacerating her face with his antlers as she approached to pet him.

A raccoon, another frequently "saved" baby animal is a very endearing wild baby. But they have a real tendency to viciousness as they grow older.

The best thing to do when you see a young wild animal is to leave it alone. Don't touch, don't approach too closely. Observe it quietly if you wish, but leave it where you find it. Nature takes care of its own.

Riegle Says Tax Bill Good For Michigan

Washington- U.S. Senator Donald W. Riegle today had the following comments in response to Senate Finance Committee passage of a tax reform measure:

"I think there are a lot of pluses in this tax bill for Michigan. We keep the deduction for mortgage interest and for state and local taxes. There will be no taxation of fringe benefits. We continue to be able to deduct charitable contributions. Most importantly, there will be an overall tax cut for everyone. 80% of the taxpayers will pay a 15% tax rate — and the personal exemption is greatly increased.

There are two problem areas that we're going to work on on the Senate floor. One is the change in the IRA rules, because it looks as if a lot of people might be hurt by that change. They also disallow the deduction for state sales tax. I'd like to see that changed if we can.

Overall, I think this is a much simpler tax code. I think it's fairer. I think it will help middle income people keep more of their own money. I think it will help the economy grow faster. So generally speaking, I think this bill is in line with what I heard people saying in the eighteen public meetings we had around the State of Michigan."

Dancer Amy Denton

Emerick, opened the show with four songs. Vocalist Lorna Morse followed, accompanying herself on guitar.

Two students from the Creative Dance Academy, Amy Denton and Stephanie Hindmarsh, presented selections from the coming dance recital in June; Stephanie entertained later as Miss Grayling with her talent from the pageant, "Hard-Hearted Hannah."

Poppy Days May 15 - 17

On Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 15, 16 and 17, the red crepe paper poppy will be offered to the public by the American Legion Auxiliary. This reminder of the sacrifice of countless thousands in four wars is an annual event undertaken by the members of Unit #106 in Grayling.

Volunteers from the Unit will once again take part in this nation-wide program in memory of the citizen soldiers who gave their lives in the cause of freedom.

Funds collected on Poppy Days are used to assist the needy veteran and his family. It is a self-help program, for the Auxiliary's familiar red paper poppy is hand-made in Poppy Shops run by Auxiliary volunteers. In these shops, disabled and hospitalized veterans make the flowers by hand, petal by petal. It is part of a physical and psychological therapy program by veterans for veterans. These poppies are purchased from the shop by the Auxiliary and offered to the public, not at a price, but for a contribution...a few cents to say America remembers.

This memorial flower was adopted by the American Legion Auxiliary in 1920 and since that time, programs have been conducted throughout the United States each year.

Contributions made on Poppy Days are used by the local unit to aid needy veterans and their families in the community and in hospitals throughout the State. All proceeds are channeled directly into rehabilitation and welfare work for children and youth.

Auxiliary members from Grayling will ask the public to pause for a moment, pin on a poppy and wear it with pride, remembering the civilian who took an oath to serve his country and gave his life so that America would survive today.

Dear Editor,

More than 22 million Americans, many of which are children, have speech, language or hearing impairments. Most of these children can be helped by trained professionals. However, very often their parents do not realize that help is available or how to get it.

May is Better Hearing and Speech Month. The purpose of designating this month is to increase public awareness of communication disorders, of the work of professionals in the field and of local sources of help. Speech-language pathologists and audiologists are the professionals specifically trained to work with individuals who have communicative disorders, in an effort to improve or restore their communication function. During this month we are urging anyone who has a * child who suffers from a speech, language or hearing disorder to learn more about it and to seek help. For further information, contact the C.O.O.R. Intermediate School District at 275-5137 or the National Association for Hearing and Speech Action, toll free, at (800) 638-TALK.

Mike Eva, Maxine Gleason, Debbie Livingston, Mary Ellen Lovelace, Mary Jo MacKillop, Debbie Manninen, Diana Ostrander-Bernson, Deborah Samuel, COOR Speech-Language Pathologists.

To The Editor,

I have read with great interest Vol. One No. One of "The Creel" and, like most controversial matters, I'm convinced that better communication is in order. I respect the fact that many of the contributors to "The Creel" are linked historically with a river we all so passionately love. I submit however, that their love is no less than mine.

It's impossible to turn back the clock and see our AuSable as a continuing source of bounty for the table. The stresses and environment insults that the 20th century is putting on our AuSable requires a new and proven approach to cold water management.

Many of us see the decline of a cold water fishery as a much greater loss to life's experience than the lack of a few trout on the table. The sport fly fishing is a game; one which is enhanced by worthy adversaries ie. decently sized trout.

To play this game, many of us journey to other parts of the country where "no kill" is mandatory and the fishing is outstanding. I am constantly amazed at the great number of fly fishermen and fly shop owners at these places who trace their origins back to Michigan.

The lessons learned from such noteable "no kill" rivers as New York's Beaverkill, Pennsylvania's Fisherman's Paradise, Montana's Armstrong Spring Creek, Colorado's Frying Pan and Alberta's Bow ought not be lost on a river with the potential of our "AuSable's.

I further submit it is not necessary for a youngster to catch, kill, and eat his trout. My son grew up without that experience and remains

MICHIGAN CONSOLIDATED GAS COMPANY (Published by Direction of the Michigan Public Service Commission)

Case No. U-8447

NOTICE OF HEARING ON DEFERRED TAXES

On March 26, 1986, Michigan Consolidated Gas Company (MichCon) filed an application with the Michigan Public Service Commission (Commission) for accounting authority for deferred tax treatment for the federal income tax effects of property taxes, 90/10 refunds, and other timing differences creating a tax effect in excess of $1,000,000.

MichCon is a Michigan corporation with principal offices located at 500 Griswold Street, Detroit, Michigan and is engaged in the distribution and sale of natural gas to approximately one million residential, commercial and industrial customers, all within the State of Michigan.

The Commission's Uniform System of Accounts for Class A and B Gas Utilities provides for the recording of deferred taxes when authorized by the Commission after a public hearing. MichCon requests that the Commission approve and grant it, as provided for in the Uniform System of Accounts, authority to employ inter-period income tax allocation in the form of deferred federal income taxes for any book-tax timing difference occurring on the following items:

a. Property Taxes. For book purposes, property taxes are generally expensed over the fiscal year of the taxing authority. For federal income tax purposes property taxes are deducted in the year in which the property taxes are assessed. Thus, a book-tax timing difference is created which, without deferred tax accounting, would distort a company's reported net income. The Commission has consistently authorized deferred tax accounting for this item for other utilities.

b. 90/10 Refunds Required Pursuant to Rate Orders. For book purposes, 90/10 refunds may be recorded each November and December based on an estimate of the total of such refunds which will be required as of the twelve months ending the following October 31. For federal income tax purposes, the refunds are deducted in the following year when the refund obligation is actually determined on the following October 31. This timing difference increases the federal tax liability and, in the absence of deferred tax treatment, distorts reported net income.

c. All Timing Differences Creating a Tax Effect in Excess of $1,000,000. This authorization would allow MichCon to properly account for unanticipated book-tax timing differences which are likely to have a material impact on MichCon's reported net income. In addition, MichCon would file a request with the Commission for specific permanent approval of the use of the deferred income tax accounts within three months of the close of the calendar year in which the deferred taxes are booked under this provision.

Jurisdiction is pursuant to 1909 PA 300, as amended, MCLA 462.2 et seq.; 1919 PA 419, as amended, MCLA 460.51 et seq.; 1939 PA 3, as amended, MCLA 460.1 et seq.; 1969 PA 306, as amended, MCLA 24.201 et seq.; and the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 1979 Administrative Code, R 460.11 et seq.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that:

A. A public hearing in this matter will be held at 9:30 a.m. on June 2, 1986 in the offices of the Commission, Mercantile Building, 6545 Mercantile Way, Lansing, Michigan, which hearing will be in the nature of a prehearing conference and will be held for the purpose of considering matters which will expedite this proceeding. Any interested persons may attend the hearing and participate, subject to the provisions of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Frocedure.

B. Any person seeking to intervene in accordance with Rule 11 of the Rules of Practice and Procedure Before the Commission shall file with the Commission, on or before May 28, 1986, an original and 12 copies of a petition to intervene, together with Proof of Service upon Mr. Martin J. Marz, Staff Attorney, Michigan Consolidated Gas Company, 500 Griswold Street, Detroit, Michigan 48226.

Subparagraph (2) of said Rule 11 provides as

"(2) A petition to intervene shall set out clearly and concisely the facts supporting the petitioner's alleged right or interest, the grounds of the proposed intervention, and the position of the petitioner in the proceeding, so as fully and completely to advise the parties and the commission of the specific issues of fact or law to be raised or controverted." (Emphasis

The Commission will require strict compliance with the above quoted rule.

SPORTS FANS!

Brought To You By Mike Fortino Sales Representative

Here's a true story about what happened one day to the great golfer Bobby Jones — and, this is a story that illustrates the real meaning of the word "sportsmanship"...Jones was playing in the National Open of 1925 at Worcester...His boll went into the rough, and then accidentally moved very slightly when Jones' club touched a nearby blade of grass...Reporters later said that NOBODY saw the ball move... Jones, however, asked that he be penalized a stroke...Everyone tried to talk him out of taking the penalty because no one saw the ball move...But Jones insisted and as it turned out, that stroke cost him the title that year... Someone later asked Jones why he'd done it...He said, "That's the only way to play the game"... Is there a better definition of sportsmanship than that?

What was the longest fight on record?...Most boxing records show that the longest glove fight ever was between Andy Bowen and Jack Burke in New Orleans in 1893...Their bout lasted 110 rounds, or 7 hours and 19 minutes!...tlt ended as a draw when neither man could continue.

Jeff Palmer, playing left field, made a shoestring catch with two runners aboard to save the game. Earlier in the inning Palmer 13. threw out a runner at the plate.

Grayling was losing 13-2 heading into the 5th and in danger of having the game called because of the 10-run mercy rule. In the next three innings, Grayling hitters scored 4, 10, and 1 runs for the win. Palmer contributed two home runs and four RBI's. George Duncan had a home run and four RBI's and John Kinnee also tagged a home run. David Myers, Jason Teddy, and David Somerville also added two hits apiece to the attack.

Scott Blye, a freshman, was the winning pitcher in the 17-16 win.

In the second game, Grayling didn't wait around for a comeback. They pounded Boyne City 15-1 behind the two-hit pitching of freshman Chris Skidmore.

John Kinnee led the attack with three hits. Skidmore helped his own cause with two hits and Palmer and Jeff Wolcott added two hits each. Wolcott and Palmer each banged in three RBI's.

Skidmore won another game pitching 6/2/3 innings against Central Lake in an 11-5 win. Palmer received the save with 2/3 innings work.

Only four Grayling players got hits as Palmer led the team with 3 including a round-tripper. Flaskie Robins added two hits and Myers and John Meagher each had one.

Blve received the win as pitcher in a 7-1 second game win. He also led the hitting with two hits including a home run. Palmer had two hits and Joe Erb, David Williams, Clark Allen, Mike McNamara, and Guy Nemeth each had one hit.

By Nancy K. Holcomb, Activities Director. Grayling Health Care Center

National Nursing Home Week, celebrating the contributions and lifetime achievements made by the elderly who now reside in nursing homes, is May 12-18.

According to President Reagan, "I urge all Americans to remember the contributions our older citizens have made in building America. (Their) Wisdom, memory and life experience can help us all to better understand this complex and changing world."

Also, declared as Michigan Nursing Home Week by Governor Blanchard, the week is set aside to recognize, support, show encouragement to and appreciation for "the high standard of care that long term care facilities are providing in our state," says Blanchard.

Americans are now living longer than ever before, since 1900 life expectancy has increased in the United States by more than 20 years.

Currently 11.3% of the nation's population is age 65 or over and nine million of these are age 75 or older (the age group most likely to enter a nursing home).

Because of this "population explosion" among the aged, more elderly are moving into nursing homes than ever before.

As the fears and misconceptions about growing older give way to the knowledge of the aging process so too do the myths that a nursing home is "just a place to die" give way to the modern, long term care facility. Today's long term care facility focuses on health by providing needed medical attention while providing restorative care including physical, occupational and speech therapies.

A modern facility is also designed for the safety as well as the comfort of each resident from building layout to furniture construc-

Mrs. DuBois had been a lifelong resident of Vassar and had spent two years with her daughter in Grayling before going to the Medical Care Facility three and onehalf years ago.

Surviving besides Marian are another daughter, Mrs. Betty Reed of Millington and two sons, Leeds DuBois and James DuBois, both of Vassar.

Scholarships For Teachers

Scholarships for teachers wishing to attend the 1986 Higgins Lake Environmental School are available from the Crawford-Roscommon Soil Conservation District.

In three summer sessions at the Ralph A. MacMullan Conference Center, personnel from state universities and the Department of Natural Resources will work with participants in an attempt to give them a thorough background for understanding environmental problems statewide.

Field trips are taken to see some of the root causes of environmental problems and management practices discussed in the classroom. Environmental concepts, principles and teaching techniques are integrated throughout the week. Daily free time allows students to pursue their own interests in the library, at the beach or elsewhere.

Sessions are 'Michigan's Environment,' June 22-27; 'Environmental Education Learning Through Experience' July 20-25; and 'Understanding Our Environment August 10-15.

Five state universities grant credit for the sessions.

Scholarship applicants must write a brief paragraph on why the session they wish to attend would benefit them; their future plans for conservation education in their classroom or school; and how a scholarship would help them. Details are available by calling the Crawford-Roscommon Soil Conservation District, 409 Lake St., Roscommon at 275-5231 between 8:00 a.m.

and 1:00 p.m. weekdays.

"Mercy Matters"

By Sister Mary Ellen Howard, RSM President and Chief Executive Officer Mercy Hospital, Grayling

You could say Mercy Hospital was built by and for the people of Grayling, although today we serve some 45,000 residents in Crawford and five other surrounding counties. As we celebrate our 75th year of caring, I'd like to take a step back in time and give thanks to all who have helped make Mercy Hospital what it is today...one of the most modern and caring health care facilities in Northern Michigan.

Back when lumbering was a major economic importance to Grayling the need for health care was recognized. Grayling's beloved and generous citizen, Rasmus Hanson, called a committee together to plan a hospital to serve the lumbermen of Northern Michigan.

In August 1910, land donated by Rasmus Hanson, Dr. O. Palmer and C.W. Ward was broken on North McClellan Street and the building construction began. On May 16, 1911, the building was dedicated and the deed to the property and building, together with its furnishings, were given to the three pioneer Sisters of Mercy who came to provide health ; care to our Milltown.

Over the years community members continued to support the hospital financially and otherwise. As health care needs changed, Mercy adapted and grew with the times. In 1980 further expansion was needed and during that latest building fund drive, the generous people of Grayling and the surrounding communities that Mercy serves worked diligently to raise over a half million dollars for the building project. The current Mercy facility and staff can be a source of pride to all who have helped to make this happen.

We at Mercy Hospital have much to be thankful for...our heritage of wonderful friends in the community who have ensured the hospital's continued success.

The theme of our celebration is "75 Years of Caring". To most people this would refer to Mercy's caring for YOU, the community. To me it also reminds us that for 75 years Grayling has been caring for Mercy Hospital, helping Mercy to continue to serve and grow in support of the health care mission of the Sisters of Mercy. On May 17, 1986, we will look back in gratitude, but I know that we can look forward also with faith in God and confidence in each other, to another "75 Years of Caring."

Hassles To Tassels

Congratulations, graduates! You have moved from "Hassles to Tassels." And what a movement.

The hassles of late-night study; term papers overdue; unexpected too-low grades squeezing tears from disappointed eyes, and the hundredand-one other hassles that have caused stomachs to churn and sleep not come have now turned to tassels, those little stringy wads that hang from mortar board hats (and no one ever remembers which side they go on).

Today, there may be tears—mixed tears; tears of joy and sadness. Old gangs breaking up. Friendships are writing their last lines on chalkboards as Time takes eraser and reduces to white dust chapters that took years to write. And those bulky academic gowns! So big, so unfamiliar, belonging to another era of human history. Why so big?

Here is one theory.

Your graduate's gown is oversized because many, many people belong in that robe with you. Your parents, family, scores of teachers who have nourished and nurtured you into and through life belong in there with you. You would not be who you are and what you are had they not loved, taught, and sacrificed for you.

Congratulations to you (and everyone inside your robe). (Footnote: Keep the "hassle" going when you lay aside the tassel. That is, "Study to show yourself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not be ashamed." Il Timothy 2:15)

Everyday for the month of May the Frederic Elementary School is having "Your Special Day" for particular members of the staff and Tuesday, April 29th, was Sue Louchart Day. The staff had put balloons on her work door, popcorn machine, and a poster with special sayings on it from the staff such as; extraordinary, a classic, unbeatable, going-going-going, time-saver, and many more. All of these were cut-outs from magazines or newspapers. She also received a card made up from Sandy Fleming's 5th grade class. thanking her for helping them raise money for their class by making popcorn every week.

It is always nice to be appreciated for the work we do and Sue Louchart certainly knows how special she is to the Frederic Elementary School.

Other volunteers to be honored and their special dates are: Pauline Henion, May 12: Donna Thomson. May 15: Cheryl Hopp, May 17: Sandi Hasson, May 22: Alta Bindschatel, May 30.

South I-75 Business Loop — Grayling, Mich.

The Grayling Promotional Association is keeping up its busy pace of activities. Denise Dittmer and Karen Kammer are to be congratulated on a very successful spring hat contest and childrens treasure hunt held Saturday, May 3rd. Over two hundred happy/ laughing children participated in the event. The children gathered in front of the Grayling State Bank at 1 p.m. and marched from there (in all their finery) down to the city park. At the park, students from the Grayling Middle School assisted GPA members as different age groups hunted for prizes. All the kids, the students, and GPA members had a wonderful time.

Plans are getting into high gear for the Milltown Festival Parade...another GPA sponsored event. Lanice Rubin, chairperson of the event, has been having meetings with her committee for the past four months and there will be some real surprises in store for those who view this years parade. We hope to have music, music, music!!!

Our speaker for April was Bob Cole, of Flowers by Josie. However, this time Bob had on his "Beautification Committee" hat. Bob's enthusiasm was contagious and several GPA members volunteered to help the committee contact Grayling business owners so that once again, Grayling will have beautiful flowers along the curb all summer long.

Since one of GPA's highest goals is to encourage business, we feel that a beautiful city makes even a stranger want to stop and see what is going on. GPA members also volunteered to help with supervising the Kirtland's Warbler nesting areas in northern Michigan will be closed and posted against public entry during the 1986 nesting season. Warbler watchers may see the bird and view nesting areas only by participating in guided tours.

Free guided tours to Warbler nesting areas will depart from the Michigan Department of Natural Resources Grayling Field Office in Grayling, and from the USDA, Forest Service District Office in Mio.

The tours will begin on May 14th and will end July 4th. The Grayling tour will be offered everyday at 7 a.m. and 11 a.m.

The Mio tour will be offered at 7:30 a.m., Wednesday through Sunday, with an 11 a.m. tour on Saturday and Sunday only. No tours will be offered on Monday or Tuesday at Mio.

June. Kudo's go to Betty Ames GPA's entrant in the Milltown Trivial Pursuit contest. Betty acquitted herself well...along with the other GPA cheerleaders who escorted her on to the stage. It was a fun evening and we hope more people will come out to view this battle of the brains next time.

GPA is discussing how they want to be of help to the Crawford County Fair committee. Several ideas were presented with a definite decision to be made at a later date. GPA membership has been growing over the past few years and the membership committee, headed by Marion Tessin, is hard at work getting many new businesses represented. We are looking forward to meeting these new proprietors of the Grayling business community, or their representatives.

Keep your eye on GPA...we Grayling...and we hope to make it the most loved and talked about town in northern Michigan.

Everything we do...is for you!!!

Caboose Added To Depot Historical Museum Site

If you haven't driven past the new Crawford County Historical Museum/Depot lately you have missed the most recent addition to the new historical complexs collection. On Monday of this week the Michigan National Guard took caboose No. 207, of the Detroit and Mackinac line, on its final trip from Fick's siderail to the newly renovated museum/ depot site. The caboose was purchased from the D & M Railroad by the Grayling State Bank for $1.00 and donated to the Crawford County Historical Society to become a permanent fixture in the new historical complex. The historical society is currently cleaning and painting the caboose. When finished the caboose will be open for public inspection and will be used as a demonstration area for the fine arts exhibits and workshops.

Waycar No. 207 was put into active service on October 27, 1921 and logged several million miles during its career. The last few years were spent travelling the rails of northern Michigan until it. like all other cabooses, was retired early last year. Our caboose spent the last few months sitting beside its sister car No. 206 on a siderail in Tawas. The acquisition of No. 207 was first initiated by Randy Thompson and the Gravling Rotary Club and more recently by the efforts of R.J. Ruddy of the historical society. The tracks, ties and spikes for its relocation to its present site were all donated by the Straits Aggregate Company and gravel to support the twenty tons of weight was provided by the Crawford County Road Commission. We thank them all for their community support in making our historical complex the most unique in northern

The opening of the new facility will put Grayling and canoe racing on the world sports map and provide hours of entertainment for sports enthusiasts and a general enlightenment of the sport for locals and tourists alike.

The first inductees are currently being notified of the honor but the committee is giving nothing away to the public. The only hint that we can pass on is that someone named Sawyer who resides in California will happen to be in Grayling that day.

Jim's, Penrod's, Pioneer, Borcher's, Carlisle or Ray's canoe liveries stand ready to serve any canoeing need from 1 hour to 1 week. If you haven't enjoyed a canoe trip down the AuSable or Manistee rivers please do it now. It's as easy and affordable as it is enjoyable.

Tourist Warning

To ensure that your vacation is a relaxing and enjoyable experience in our area, please beware of and avoid any possible dangers. The Michigan National Guard makes the Grayling area their summer home. Please do not go near their range firing areas. Consult a county map, available at the Chamber office in the city park, before you explore our forests. The guard is an essential part of our defense and you are an essential part of our economy and there is lots of room here for both of you. While here please visit Camp Grayling to see how your guard is serving you.

Kirtland Warbler Tours

The rare and nearly extinct Kirtland's Warbler can be seen in parts of Crawford County during the summer months. A small area of northern Michigan is the only place in the world where this rare bird exists. Contact the Department of Natural Resources at 348-6371 for information on guided tours.

Depot Opens Saturday As Historical Site

This Saturday the culmination of a great number of people and a great number of hours worked will result in the opening of the main floor of the old depot building as the new Crawford County Historical Müseum.

All of the artifacts, photos, documents and truths and legends of our heritage have been or are currently being moved from the old museum into the new, and hundreds of recently acquired, never before displayed additions to the collection will be available for your pleasure. The new museum has been designed to be entertaining and educational to all age groups. Although open to the public the new facility will be far from complete. Renovation of the twelve rooms upstairs will begin shortly. Each room will depict a different aspect of life in Grayling as it might have been eighty to one hundred years ago. Local service clubs, organizations and families have volunteered to take a room as a community project.

With four times the space in the new museum the Crawford County Historical Society is still looking for displayable items. If you have something historical and of local interest and would like to donate or lend it to the society, please do so immediately by phoning 348-7033 or 348-2921.

50 Percent of Area Businesses Depend on Tourist Dollars

By Terry Wright

This issue of the Chamber Newsletter is obviously directed to tourism in Crawford County. Tourism is one of our most important industries. Without it our lives would be much different, the "Quality of Life" in Grayling and all of Crawford County would be much less than we enjoy today. One half of all county businesses and therefore jobs are directly dependent on tourism. Each tourist dollar brought into and spent in our county cýcles seven times before it leaves again. A steady flow of tourist dollars creates jobs faster than sporadic industrialization.

Chamber Notice

The Grayling Regional Chamber of Commerce is non profit organization whose goals are to promote the "Quality of Life" in Grayling and Crawford County through the support of its members. The 250 members of the chamber care about the future enough to invest their hard earned dollars towards meeting our goals. We encourage you to patronize your chamber members. Stop at the office in the city park for a complete list of chamber mem-

Deadline Nears for "Grand Event"

On Wednesday, May 20th the chamber will be awarding a $3,000.00 cash grand prize to the lucky winner of our grand event. If you haven't purchaseed your ticket your time is running out. Tickets are available for $10.00 at these locations: The Grayling Chamber of Commerce, Mac's Drugs and Cornell Realty.

From all indications the upcoming tourist season will be a banner year for our tourist related economy and to derive the greatest benefit from our good fortune we must be properly prepared. The services that we provide to the travelling population must be valuable enough to bring them into our area and the hospitality that we show them while they're here must bring them back.

The tourist attractions featured on this page will hopefully help to bring the tourists here and now is the time for the business community to brush up on the smiles and politeness that will keep them coming back for more. Get the dusters dusting and the stockers stocking and the greeters smiling and if the weather holds out we'll rest together in September...and I'll take all the credit.

All Types of Camping Offered

As summer rapidly approaches, camping comes to the forefront of a large number of tourists minds and Crawford County is ready to serve them. With our abundance of natural water resources thousands of northbound motor homes, travel trailers and tenters will get off the expressway in our area to enjoy their favorite form of leisure at our many public and private campgrounds.

A variety of camping experiences are available in Crawford County. Pine Knoll, Riverpark and Jellystone Park provide camping at its most comfortable with complete modern facilities at reasonable rates. All are conveniently located within minutes of shopping and entertainment. For the slightly more rugged there are federal and state campgrounds located throughout the county, many on water or near proven tourist attractions. If you want a completely natural experience camping is allowed in many unimproved areas of the large tracts of government land in our county.

Looking for Unique Shopping?

You might not think of Grayling as a unique

Campers spend more than a billion dollars in Michigan each and every summer on their vacations and outings. Their money plays a large role in our tourist economy and we are happy to treat them with the services and the respect as customers that they are due.

The Best Possible Age To Be Is

G

The Age You Are

The medical problems associated with aging are many, causing geriatrics to deal with a wide range of ailments. Some health problems crop up more often than others, though. Older people tend to have diminished organ capabilities. Peak functioning is reached when someone is in their 20's and 30's, a general decline occurs after that.

Because of this, older people may have more difficulty fighting off infections. This is especially true during cold weather, when respiratory problems abound. Arthritis, bone problems and heart failure are also prevalant.

People must prepare for their golden years. It's important to follow wise health care practice your entire life in order to avoid problems later. People have a tendency to stray from healthful living due to a reassuring, but erroneous notion. They think medicines will soon find magical cures for almost everything, when the best it can offer is care.

Proper nutrition, regular exercise and not smoking are some easily followed guidelines that will lead to a long life. Having a positive attitude helps, too.

There are studies showing that state of mind plays a significant role in whether a person remains healthy. This is especially true with the older population. Older persons often become depressed when a spouse or friend dies, and they lose their will to live. However, if someone has their own interests to pursue, this is less likely to happen.

Most seniors have a healthy attitude towards aging. They view themselves as survivors who have lived through the Great Depression and world wars. This survival instinct makes it easier for them to accept the aging process. For them, its just another hill to climb.

Doodles From The Tall Timber

by Wendell L. Hoover Park Interpreter

The old saying about "Spring is bustin' out all over" is very much a fact. Some trees are partially leafed out while others looks as though they are reluctant to arouse themselves from the winters sleep. The little oak across the road from the office looks more dead than alive, but when I looked this morning the buds are there and ready to open at some signal from mother nature.

The June Berry or Shadbush is in bloom now, gracing the still somewhat drab woods with shadows of white. The cherries (pin and choke) will bloom shortly to add their white to a still more green forest. The bees will soon be very happy as the basswood will be flowering. There is not any honey as sweet or clear as that from the basswood.

Flowers such as the Trailing Arbutus, Trillium, Trout Lily and Yellow Violet are in full bloom. Those species grow in the forest so it is imperative they go through their blooming period before the leaves on the trees develop to such a point where the available sunlight to the forest floor is shut out.

The warming weather has brought out a variety of biting insects, mainly the blackflies and mosquitos. I have not been bothered by the deer flies yet, but it won't be long. Of course the insects come out just in time for the birds which are or will soon be nesting.

It is a brief busy period so enjoy it.

Bob and Marian Wills of Flint spent the weekend visiting her uncle and aunt, the Les Hunters.

Our neighbors, Jerome and Billie Kessler, have returned from their Lakeland. Florida, home and we can now chat over the back fence with them. It's good to have them back in the neighborhood.

We also have another new neighbor, John Harrison, who has purchased the home on the corner of Chestnut and Ingham Street from his nephew. It's a homecoming for him as he was born in Grayling just across the river from where he now lives. Welcome back to Grayling!

Melvin and Nancy Nunn were at the National Middle and Elementary School Principals Association in Las Vegas for five days the latter part of April. He is running for a national office. One of the highlights of the program was speaker, Terrence Bell, former Secretary of Education.
